Christmas Handicap Tournament

Monday 28 December 2009

Each entrant will play two singles and two doubles matches during the round robin stage. The winners of each group go through to the final round which shall be similarly contested. These are to be played on handicap on Monday evening starting at six o'clock. Therefore, if you win your group, or are a very close runner up, you will be expected to turn up at that time. If a group winner cannot make the final stage then his or her place will be taken by the next best runner-up in the whole tournament.

There is a very tight schedule so please turn up at least twenty minutes early in case some slack in the timings occurs. This may ease the pressure on later matches. Please be ready to come on court straight away after the previous match is finished. The matches will not be marked; if in doubt about the handicap or scoring please consult the spectators. Any player not arriving on time will be penalized one game for each 5 minutes (or part thereof) that he or she is late.

Each match in the competition will comprise of a normal set (i.e. the first to six games) played on handicap. The handicaps for the doubles have been calculated and entered on the league tables. Use the handicap calculator on the noticeboard to work out the handicap (NB there is a slight difference between the singles and doubles handicap calculations). Half-bisques and bisques must be used for handicap differences of one and two respectively (contact me if you want to know more about bisques).

Please put the score on the league tables on the noticeboard. Each game in the singles is worth one point; in the doubles every two games are worth one point to the final score. Each player should add up the number of games won at doubles and halve this number (rounding up the odd half if an odd number of games has been won) to obtain the final contribution to the points from the singles. In the event of a tie, the winner of the singles is the winner of the group.

Any player not wearing almost all white clothes will be penalized by awarding a half-bisque to their opponent in the singles, and to their opponents in the doubles.

Some basic food and drink will be available throughout the day.

In each group of six, one of the player's names is in bold; he or she will act as arbitrator and manager for that group if the tournament organizer is not around. If you have any queries or unforeseen disasters please contact me on 01223 812120 or try the Club — I shall be around most of the day.
